Gloves on Thursday.
Eight button length Castor gloves in tans and modes, every pair worth $1.10, as the service of first-class Castor gloves is greater than any other.
They can be seen in the window, and they will be sold on Thursday at 75c per pair. The lot is not large, and the sale will begin at exactly 9 o'clock. We don't expect to offer another as good bargain in gloves this season.
We put in stock yesterday a beautiful quality all-linen, plain satin damask, six feet wide, price $1.50 per yard.

AS TO STOCK TAKING.
Four months hence the merchants will be making stock. Why not take it now? It is a matter of the people take it for them, and thus spare themselves as much as possible the labor, the cost and the waste of midnight hours in the traditional function. There's wonderful stock-taking capacity in the people if they are tactfully incited to lead a band at counting of the shelves, at the same time being dropped a hint that they don't lose anything by it. Given the stock to be moved out, the rest is a matter of judicious advertising.
Could there be more judicious advertising than that which goes into household duty, and for which the clasp of five times that many pages?

Iowa Militia Disgraced.
Monticello, Iowa, Sept. 10.—The annual encampment of the First regiment of the Iowa National Guard ended last night. The regiment was in breakup this morning, but about 100 of the soldiers did not wish to stay in camp all night, and about 11 o'clock made a rush through the lines. About half of them succeeded in passing the guards. They made a raid on the outside of the town. Colonel Main sent a detachment of 100 guards in pursuit, but they were in front of the opera house. The soldiers at first refused to accompany the guards, but after three or four of them were picked up by the guards and were taken back to Camp Dayton, it was asserted that the disgraced militiamen will all be discharged.

Scale a Huge Sum.
Clarion, Pa., Sept. 10.—William F.
Oiler & Co., general store keepers at Clarion, Pa., this county, were robbed Saturday at $70,000 in bonds, notes and cash. Until today the robbery was kept secret. Saturday night the store closed at 10 o'clock. Monday of the firm and clerks finished packing the goods, counted the cash and locked up the store, and went across the street. They were gone ten minutes, when they returned, finding the store had been looted. They had locked up the store, and the tin boxes containing bonds to the amount of $50,000, checks and promissory notes $20,000, and over $100,000 in cash. Someone had been in the store, and as soon as the store was left, grabbed the boxes and followed.

PARADE OF NAVAL VETERANS.

The Old Tars Cheered and Displayed the Time-Strained Banner From the Old Kearsarge—General John B.
Gordon of Georgia Present—A Half-day in Pittsburgh Today.

Pittsburgh, Pa., Sept. 10.—The first day of the encampment, G. A. R., has been a day of things but the best can be said for the day, and no accidents have occurred. The day, the marching event of the day was the parade of the Naval Veterans, who went over the rather long route with a precision and excellence of drill that called forth the heartiest cheers from the spectators. The veterans numbered 100 and were led by Rear Admiral Osborne.

In the afternoon the ladies of the G. A. R. and Women's Relief Corps were taken through the city and suburbs in carriages, following which a reception was held at the Mrs. George Westinghouse at her suburban residence "Baltic," given to the visiting ladies.
Some of the guests, who have attended similar affairs on many occasions, announce this the most brilliant ever witnessed. The formal decorations were the finest ever seen in this city. Henry Waterson, ex-Governor of New York, and the prominent national officers of the G. A. R. were present. Many returns were held during the day and evening by members of different regiments and many were the reminiscences exchanged.
Tonight the sidewalks are inadequate to accommodate the crowds that throng them, and the highways are used along the main streets. Street cars and vehicles are almost blocked.
Innumerable bands are marching through the town, streets according to the newspapers and prominent people. One of the features of the first day of the encampment was the performance of Fred N. Ingle, new composer, "War and Peace," at the exhibition tonight, and his specialty.
Admitted to the encampment, was given by the Thirteenth regiment band of New York, a grand chorus of 400 local singers, accompanied by the Pennsylvania National Guards, Hanson No. 100, G. A. R. of St. Louis, and a battery of artillery, all under the direction of the commander. There were about 2000 people present, including Commander-in-Chief Adams and staff and others of note.

THE FIRST DAY.

A Fort Worth Young Lady Creates Immense Enthusiasm.

Pittsburgh, Pa., Sept. 10.—The full forces of the Grand Army are in the city this morning and have complete possession. Many departments arrived among them those of Colorado, Wyoming, Minnesota, Michigan and Missouri.
The parade of naval veterans took place this morning with over 100 men under the command of Rear Admiral J. B. Osborne in line. The old sailors were cheered all along the line of march which extended through the principal downtown streets along Fifth avenue and South Third street and over Allegheny. In the parade were carried many historic relics of naval warfare, among them the torn and time stained banner which flew over the good old Kearsarge, when she added lustre to the American standard on the high sea. The formation took place at 8 o'clock and the parade moved at 10.
Miss Carrie Lowe, daughter of General L. A. Lowe, of Fort Worth, Tex., was in the parade carrying the colors of the Dupont Naval association of Texas.
She is a grand old Admiral Osborne, having stepped off here on her way to New York. She was the lone representative of the Lone Star state in the parade of the sailors and her appearance created unbounded enthusiasm. Commandant W. H. Beckland was in command of the armed camps which presented a martial appearance. The First Ohio regiment, Sons of Veterans, occupied the right of line together with the armed camps.
The column was reviewed by the national officers from a stand on Cedar avenue, Allegheny.

Miss Carrie Lowe, the mascot of the naval veterans who arrived yesterday from Cincinnati, was in the parade.
She was dressed in regulation sailor uniform and marched beside Admiral Osborne acting as his messenger. Miss Little has been the mascot of the organization since its inception and is a general favorite among the tars. She will tomorrow occupy a place of honor in the Grand Army parade.

The naval veterans went into their annual convention this afternoon. Thirty-four associations were represented.
Commander-in-Chief J. G. B. Adams of the Grand Army arrived this morning from the East on the headquarters train, together with his staff. He was escorted to the Monongahela house by a detail of national guardsmen, and a band of music. Upon his arrival at the hotel the national headquarters were formally opened and there was a rush of visitors.

COLOSSAL SCHEME WAS THIS.

The Colorado River Irrigation Com-

New York, Sept. 10.—According to the allegations contained in a complaint filed in the United States court Judge Lacombe will be called upon tomorrow to take action with the object of preventing the continuation and final completion of what is characterized as one of the most colossal frauds in modern times. The chief character in the scheme, John C. Beatty, an American at present resides in Texas. His alleged victims include prominent New Yorkers, and other residents of the United States and Canada. How far the scheme has succeeded has not yet been determined, but one victim, James H. Beatty, president of the German and Northern Insurance company of Ontario, Canada, and of the Federal Life Assurance company, of Hamilton, Ontario, has lost $25,000 and it is charged that the goal of John C. Beatty's ambition was to fraudulently obtain possession of $750,000. The complaintants in the case, in addition to James H. Beatty, are James C. Allen, Benjamin H. Doane and Lewis W. Warner of New York.

The defendants are: Frank A. Miller, Charles H. Dow, Samuel N. Wood, P. P. Ernst, Frank Church, James H.
Brown, Charles W. Knutledge, James W. Carlin, Thomas J. O'Donnell of Colorado and John C. Beatty, of Texas, all directors or trustees of the Colorado River Irrigation company. The company was first organized on January 1, 1892, under the name of the Arizona and Colorado Land Irrigation company, but the name was changed on January 1, 1893, to its present form.
Its ostensible object was to carry on the irrigation of land in California, Arizona, Lower California and Mexico.
Its capital stock was $7,500,000, divided into 150,000 shares of 50c each.
The company was organized by John C.
Beatty for his sole interest and to enable him to realize $7,500,000 on a tract of worthless land in California, Arizona, Lower California and Mexico. His capital stock was $7,500,000, divided into 150,000 shares of 50c each.

Their Association Reported in Fine Financial Condition.

Pittsburgh, Pa., Sept. 10.—The sixth annual convention of naval veterans was held in the room of the Allegheny County fair association this afternoon. There were 200 delegates present. Rear-Admiral Osborne presided. His annual report showed a very encouraging condition of affairs, notwithstanding the defalcation of the first paymaster last year. When the defalcation was discovered, the navy department was not a dollar in the treasury and the association was heavily in debt. During the past year all the old accounts have been settled, as well

STATE OFFICERS IN CUSTODY.

Governor Stone, Auditor Stone and Treasurer Evans Must Answer to the United States for Alleged Violation of Federal Statutes—The Governor's Defense.

Jackson, Miss., Sept. 10.—Warrants were today sworn out for the arrest of the following state officers of Mississippi: J. M. Stone, governor; W. W.
Stone, auditor; and J. J. Evans, state treasurer. William J. Burns, special agent of the secret service bureau at Washington, who has been here for the last two months working on the special warrant case, made affidavit against each of the officials named before United States Commissioner L. H.
Moody, charging them with violating section 553 of the revised statutes of the United States in issuing the Emancipation special warrants, charged to be in the attitude of United States currency. The warrants were placed in the hands of United States Marshal J. F. McNelly. Auditor Stone appeared before the commissioner and entered into personal recognitance of $1000 for his appearance at the November term of the federal court, waiving examination. The warrants have not been served on Governor Stone, who was officially engaged, nor on State Treasurer Evans, who is out of the city. They will be served on the governor tomorrow and on the treasurer when he returns. The affidavit contains three charges, covering each of the three denunciations of warrants, with a photographic print on the front and back of same. These charges allege "that on the 13th day of June, 1894, the aforesaid mentioned state officers did unlawfully and feloniously, at Jackson, Miss., and not by direction of any proper officer of the United States, print, photograph, make and cause to be printed, photographed and made, a certain photograph, print and impression in the discuss of national bank currency of said United States."

Then follows the denunciations of the warrants with photographic print of its front and back.

The papers were prepared by District Attorney Lee and Assistant District Attorney Henry. The state officers have been expecting these proceedings for several days, and were not, therefore, the least surprised at them. They appeared not at all disturbed and are sanguine of a successful termination of the issue.

These warrants were issued in accordance with an act passed by the legislature making it the official duty of these officers to execute the same.
The act provides for two hundred thousand dollars of the warrants in denunciations of five, ten and twenty cents. They are redeemable January 1, 1895, and bear interest at the rate of three per cent per annum and are redeemable at any time for all dues to the state prior to that date without interest. Their issuance was rendered necessary by a deficit in the state treasury and the legislature chose this mode of providing for it over the protests of the state officers who argued for an issue of bonds in their stead.
The first demand made by the United States government was a few days ago when Special Officer Burns demanded the cancelled plates from which the warrants were printed. His demand was shot and killed near Wedowee. A party went to his house and tried to force him to come out. On his refusal a fight ensued, and finally the building was set on fire. One of the party saw Whaley through a window and fired at him, the ball taking effect in Whaley's head. It has not been learned whether the building and body were burned.

No arrests as yet. The information is Berlin, Sept. 10.—A dispatch from Genoa announces the death in that city of Baron Erlanger, the well known German banker.

The Maine Election.
Bangor, Me., Sept. 10.—Returns received by the News up to 6 o'clock tonight indicate that the Republicans have but a slight gain in the state over last year. It looks now as if Chase, Republican, will be elected by a plurality of 35,000 to 27,000 in a total vote of 110,000.
